

APPLY for Services

MTC's new and innovative pathway to employment for young people on the Autism Spectrum is now taking applications!

EXCEL, MTC's new Excellence in Computer Education and Learning training cohort, developed in partnership with local universities and employers, is uniquely aligned to the skills and affinities of youth on the Autism Spectrum. Curriculum includes Microsoft Office Specialist, instruction in data entry, programming, network basics, Microsoft Office fundamentals and A+ Comp TIA track. The program provides services, supports, and experiential opportunities, with the aim of enhancing skills that will prepare students to succeed in workplace and post secondary education settings. Contact Leah Herring, Manager of Transitions Programs for more information LHerring@macdonaldcenter.org or call 870-1300 ext.307

Congratulations!

MTC artist Gerilynn Shulman, won second place in the Florida State Fair art contest! Don't miss her work at the prestigious Gasparilla Festival of the Arts this weekend!

MTC will exhibit for the fifth consecutive year at the Gasparilla Festival of the Arts! Stop by to see the latest artworks--MTC will be at the same location, near the Museums, south of Ashley Street, on the first walkway down to the Riverwalk.

Thank you to the Gasparilla Festival of the Arts Board of Directors for your belief in the amazing artworks done in the MTC Fine Arts Studios! There's no place else like it!

Thank you to Hill Ward Henderson for your financial support of our exhibit! Much appreciation to the Junior League of Tampa for providing art supplies for our talented artists!

Don't miss Jonathan Davis' next performance!
